GOD IS USING IMPROV TO REACH THE HURTING

For the last 5 years, I have been teaching improv workshops for survivors of sex trafficking in Chicago. It all started with sharing my testimony at a fundraiser for Salt and Light Coalition, an organization that works with survivors to give them life and job skills to make it on their own, and not fall back into the lifelessness they have escaped.

Thank you for joining us on this journey as we take this ministry from part-time to full-time, from Chicago to all over this country. Sadly, the commercial sex industry is alive and booming in America, and there is no reliable data to prove how many victims are trapped in this modern-day slavery. We are working to aid in their recovery, so they can find their voice, confidence, and value in Christ. Thank you for helping make this possible.
