BUSY DAY OF MINISTRY FULL OF GOD'S GOODNESS

Thursday, December 7, we had a very busy day! But, God showed up!

First, we trekked into Chicago for our final workshop of the year at Salt and Light Coalition, and, sadly, our last class with this particular group. These ladies have been such a joy and have grown so much! In our last time with this group. It started with an impromptu Bible Study and we dove into the beauty of the Psalms...and that our Father God has big shoulders and a big heart, and He can take our anger, frustrations, and laments, as long as we're honest, like David in so many Psalms. Then, we dove in to the improv. Bobbie and I marveled at how far "Ruby" has come. In our semester with her, we've seen her grow and no longer hide and we can hear her now! She's letting herself enjoy contributing and creating and she's so much fun! This final class was such a statement to how much God is working in her.

There are so many stories in each group! We love it! And, we're excited to announce that we'll be serving Salt and Light Coalition twice per month beginning in January!

Then, we visited our friends in the Bloomington area for their sectional Christmas party. We were able to share our ministry and demonstrate many of the exercises we take our survivors through. It was such a fun night!

Being able to use a passion to impact people's lives is such a gift. We're so thankful that God is using us! Thank you for being a part of this journey!

May you have a blessed and Merry Christmas!
