UNTIL THEY'RE FREE TRAFFICKING AWARENESS NIGHTS

We've recently announced a new venture in our ministry, Until They're Free.

Until They're Free events are comedy nights featuring members of Chicago-based Christian improv troupe

Well Versed Comedy, plus truths about sex and human trafficking in Chicago, the US, and the world. The event will focus on 4 E's:

Educate audiences on the realities of Trafficking.

Entertain audiences with Comedy.

Encourage audiences with hope that God is still God, we have hope in Jesus, and can be free to laugh because of that hope.

Energize audiences to find their calling in life, whether God is calling them to serve in the world of trafficking or other harvest field.

Each night, audiences will get to meet one of the amazing survivors we've been able to serve in our ministry. You'll hear some of their story and be reminded that there's hope in Christ, no matter the trials of this world.

Until They're
FREE
A NIGHT OF COMEDY AND INFORMATION TO COMBAT SEX & HUMAN TRAFFICKING.

Until They're Free is an outreach available to churches free of charge. Tickets and offerings will support the work of the Improv Missionaries as we serve survivors around the country. Until They're Free gives your church a community event to bring people in while also helping us reach more hurting with the light, joy, and laughter of Christ! If you or your church are interested in bringing Until They're Free to your church, please contact us. Our heart is to raise the alarm and awareness on trafficking to the point that we work ourselves out of a job. We love what we do...but hate that there's a need for it.
