SERVING ORGANIZATIONS IN ILLINOIS, TEXAS, FLORIDA

Dave recently completed a 12-day stretch of ministry in the Dallas-Metroplex (the fun nickname given to the Dallas-Forth Worth region), central Florida, and central and southern Illinois. In that time, Dave amassed 2,743 miles in the air, 1,349 miles in cars, visited 20 cities, served at four organizations, and ministered to 45 survivors, plus over a dozen staff members at our partner organizations. It was fun, fruitful, and, understandably, exhausting!

housing. It was another amazing day with strong, smart, and funny women! From there, he met with Bridging Freedom in Tampa, who works exclusively with underage girls who have survived trafficking.

These trips are not possible without the generous support of one-time gifts, as well as the monthly Faith Promise gifts from members of Team Yes, And!

Please keep us in prayer and consider sharing our ministry with family, friends, and businesses you're connected with so we can make our budget and continue reaching survivors in Illinois, Texas, Florida, and beyond!

Dave served at existing partner Rescue Her for the first time, and added The Underground as a new partner, The Underground, in Fort Worth. Dave returns to Dallas in May to serve at both groups. From Dallas to Orlando to serve at Selah Freedom with the survivors in their long-term
